

Subject	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Reading	Fictional Texts Grammar lessons will also be taught through shared texts throughout the Year.	Poetry and folk tales	Plays and non-fiction books
Writing	Drafting and writing a new chapter for a fictional text Grammar and spelling every term.	Reading, reciting and composing poems. Instructional writing.	writing play scripts and instructions.
Speaking and listening	Presenting ideas for an new chapter of a text to the class.	Reciting narrative poems	Performing plays.
Maths	Place Value Addition and subtraction Measurement: length	Multiplication and division Fractions Decimals Time and money.	Fractions Statistics Properties of shape Problems involving measures.
Science	Y2 The human body and animals. Y3 Light.	Rocks and materials Plants	Animals and their habitats Forces and moving
Computing		Computer science Programming E-safety	Presentation Animation data
Design Technology	Y3: Mechanical systems: Pop up books.	Y3: Cooking and nutrition; healthy eating
Art	Y2: Drawing and painting, Self portraits. Y3: Collage, drawing. Inspired by Ernst Haeckel and Matisse.		Sculpture
Music	listening , appraising composing different genres of music: Ukulele; African drums.	listening , appraising composing different genres of music: boomwacker; ocarina.	listening , appraising composing different genres of music: Various instruments.
MFL	French	French	French
PE	Football swimming	Dance Football Gym	Athletics Swimming
RE	Domestic Church Judaism Confirmation Advent and Christmas	Local church Eucharist Lent/Easter	Pentecost Islam Reconciliation Universal Church
Geography	Y2 the continents Y3 Rivers and weather systems.	The UK	Rivers
History	World War 1: The Armistice.	Stone age to Iron age	Ancient Egypt